Re: United States v. Lincoln Acosta
19 CR 281 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

By this letter motion I respectfully seek an adjournment of Mr. Acosta's sentencing from its present date, September 10, 2020, for a period of 60 days. Assistant United States Attorney Alexandra Rothman does not object to the application.

The situation with Mr. Acosta has not changed since my July 1st application for the same relief. I have not been able to meet with Mr. Acosta, nor have unmonitored phone conversations, since mid-February 2020. I have not reviewed the final Presentence Report with him; neither have I been able to complete his sentencing submission.

Accordingly the defense is not prepared to proceed to sentencing on the current schedule, and respectfully seeks a further adjournment to a date convenient to the Court approximately 60 days hence. I wish to note that on whatever day the Court selects, it is the preference of my client, as well as that of his family, to have an in-person sentencing proceeding.

Application Granted. Defendant Acosta's sentencing hearing is adjourned to November 12, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Defendant's submission shall be filed by October 19, 2020. The Government's submission shall be filed by October 22, 2020. The Clerk of the Court is directed to terminate the letter motion at docket number 44.

Sincerely,

David Wikstrom
